Update: Deadline for Awards Nominations Has Been Extended to May 1st

Nomination Deadline Extended: Lifetime Achievement and Communicator of the Year

The Thoroughbred chapter continues to seek nominations for Lifetime Achievement and Communicator of the Year. The deadline for applications has been extended to May 1 2023, at 5 p.m.

Communicator of the Year

Each year the Thoroughbred chapter awards a Communicator of the Year award. This is the 24th year in which our chapter honors a person or persons who during the last calendar year have done an excellent job of communicating his or her passion, but does not work as a PR professional.

Lifetime Achievement/Hall of Fame

The Thoroughbred chapter periodically awards one of our chapter members a Lifetime Achievement Award. One of the requirements, among others, is the recipient must have at least a 20-year career in public relations. It is not presented every year... just at times when the chapter board feels it should be presented.
